

ALE Property Group Privacy Statement

Australian Leisure and Entertainment Property Management Limited (ALEPML) confirms that it will comply with the National Privacy Principles which form part of the Privacy Act 1988.

Protecting your privacy is important to ALEPML, and ALEPML hopes the following statement will help you understand how ALEPML collects, uses and safeguards your personal information.

Information Collection

Our share registry service provider, Computershare collects, uses and handles all of Stapled Securities Holder's and ALE Note Holder's personal information for ALEPML.

Apart from the items mentioned above, ALEPML does not collect personal information on individuals.

Use of Personal Information

ALEPML will only use the personal information we collect from you for the purpose you have provided it, for the purpose disclosed at the time of collection or otherwise as set out in this Privacy Statement. We will not use your personal information for any other purpose without first obtaining your consent unless authorised or required by law.

Once you become a Stapled Securities Holder or ALE Note Holder, Chapter 2C of the Corporations Act 2001 requires information about you (including your name, address and details of the units you hold) to be included in a public register. This information must continue to be included in a public register if you cease to be a Stapled Securities Holder or ALE Note Holder. These statutory obligations are not altered by the Privacy Act 1988.

Companies Who Provide Services to ALEPML

As outlined above, Computershare is a service provider of ALEPML, and is not permitted to use personal information about you for any purpose, except to perform the services we have asked it to provide in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001.

Disclosure Information

As your name, address and details of the Stapled Securities or ALE Notes you hold are included in a public register, anyone who provides us with notice may have access to, or obtain a copy of the public register in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001. In some cases, a service fee may be charged by our registry service provider for this information.

We will not disclose any information to any person without your approval unless it is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 or required by other laws.

Your Rights of Access and Correction

You can contact our Privacy Officer at any time if you would like details of any personal information we may hold about you or if you would like us to correct it. You may contact our Privacy Officer by writing to the following address:
